

26th RCMI Collaborative Training Awards

One of the activities under the RCMI Program is to provide funds for facilitating training activities in relevant research areas.

To accomplish this goal, funds are available to enable short visits of Medical Sciences Campus faculty and graduate students to learn research techniques and/or develop collaborative relationships with senior scientists outside of Puerto Rico. Abstract presentations are not a focus of this initiative.

Research training in areas relevant to health disparities (i.e. cancer, diabetes, cardiovascular and neurological disorders, HIV, infectious diseases, etc.), population studies and community engagement are encouraged and will be given priority.

Allowable expenses include travel expenses and housing, as well as other related expenditures. Travel activities must be initiated before June 30th, 2018.

Faculty and graduate students interested in applying for this award must access the electronic application form available at:

http://rcmi.rcm.upr.edu/forres/travel_award

The application form must then be submitted electronically to rcmi.rcm@upr.edu by Friday, March 30, 2018.

ONLY ELECTRONIC SUBMISSIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED

AWARDS ARE FOR SHORT-TERM TRAINING AND RANGE BETWEEN $1,500- $2,000

If you need additional information, please contact the RCMI Program at extensions 7033 or 1620 or e-mail us at rcmi.rcm@upr.edu.
